Dear Chris:

I am writing this letter on behalf of our working experience with Promontory Point Capital (PPC).

Interior Systems, Inc. (ISI) engaged with PPC in an effort to find the right strategic partner for our business. That process concluded with the sale of our organization to a strategic partner, Elkay Manufacturing Co., in January of 2017.

I could not speak more highly of the experience our organization had in working with PPC. From the onset our goal was to find the right strategic partner that ensured the right path forward for our organization, and created the highest possible value for all of our stakeholders. With PPC's tireless efforts we were able to achieve all of these goals.

We found PPC to be tireless, realistic, open, and forthcoming, and above all else a trusted business advisor and partner. I would highly recommend PPC to future potential clients as an advisor and partner to help companies achieve their strategic goals.

Sincerely,
